“Sharing Our Faith Stories in Worship this Summer”

Early Moravians used to write a personal faith reflection in their middle-age years. It was called a ‘Lebenslaufe’, which means “Life’s Course,” and it was a means of sharing the way that each person saw God working throughout his/her life. The community of faith believed that this was one way for individuals to share their faith testimony and witness to the community the good news of the gospel. Any time we share where we have found God present in our lives, we offer others the opportunity to reflect on where they have found it in their own lives.

This summer, the Lakeview Worship Committee, is inviting congregation members to consider sharing about their faith in our worship. If you are called to do this, Pastor Staci would work with you to develop the worship service and your faith reflection. Those leading would choose scriptures and hymns and liturgy that are particularly meaningful to them for the worship, and incorporate the faith sharing time during the sermon portion of the morning.

Pastor Staci will start this summer series on June 3, with the following dates being open for others to sign up: June 24 July 22

If you are interested in helping to lead in this way, and share your faith story with the congregation, please contact Pastor Staci at lakeviewrev@sbcglobal.net or call her at 608-417-0232.

In the Hospital? Call Pastor Staci - Hospitals cannot notify churches that you have been admitted. Even if the stay in the hospital is short, Pastor Staci would like to come visit you.
A few months ago, I was asked to write an article about Lakeview Moravian for our Eastmorland Neighborhood newsletter, the “Hi Neighbor!”. I had never been invited to write an article about the church, so I wondered where I would start and what I really wanted the neighborhood to know about us, that they might not already know.

I decided to share part of our ministry that I think connects us to the Eastmorland Neighborhood that others may, or may not see. I wanted them to see that it is connected to our past ministry, not doing a new thing but what Lakeview has always done in the neighborhood, just in a different manner. Here is what I wrote:

Lakeview Moravian Community Church Part of the Neighborhood for 64 Years

In the early 1950’s, the Rev. Milo Loppnow, his wife, and a small group of folks started having church in the house that sits directly across Hargrove Street from where Lakeview Moravian Community Church now stands. They could never have imagined the ways the Eastmorland Neighborhood would change in the next 64 years.

The current church structure was built on the triangle of land between Tulane Ave. and Hargrove St. in 1954. Then the congregation started to grow. All of the churches in the neighborhood were packed to overflowing on Sunday mornings in those days, and Lakeview Moravian had so many children in Sunday School that two Sunday School hours, were needed to serve them all. By the early 60’s, a new addition to the building was added to accommodate the nearly 200 children, who attended Sunday School each week over the next fifteen to twenty years.

Over the next decades, those children grew and moved from the neighborhood. Today there are only a handful of young kids at Lakeview Moravian Community Church on Sunday mornings, but the commitment to ministering to kids in the community has not changed for this church.

Today Lakeview Moravian is caring for neighborhood kids in ways outside of Sunday School classrooms. This small congregation is working with area congregations on a Weekend Nutrition program for Schenk Elementary School. Since 2015 Lakeview, and four other, east side churches, pack bags of non-perishable food for kids to take home every weekend during the school year. In 2016, improvements to the church building were made to create a home for the El Jardin Infantil Pre-School, a bilingual preschool, which now operates from the basement of the church. And last year, Lakeview Moravian offered space to help Whitehorse Middle School launch an after-school lesson program for orchestra students. A local 4H group meets monthly at Lakeview, as they have for 20 years, as does an Eastmorland Daisy Scouts Troop.

“Love your neighbor” is a tenet of the Christian faith. Lakeview Moravian Community Church seeks to do that by serving the Eastmorland neighborhood in ways that show that in all that they do.

[end of article]

What part of the life of Lakeview’s ministry would you tell the neighborhood about if you wrote an article?

At Lakeview, I think we are still working to "live the love of Christ", like our sign out front says. We are learning new ways to be the Church in our neighborhood.

With Christ As Our Guide,
Staci
